3. Ubicación en el plan formativo / Academic Context

Breve descripción de la asignatura Course description	This is a basic subject that forms part of Module 1 of the Verified Memory of the Social Education Grade that is called Conceptual and Contextual Bases of Social Education. Therefore, the subject is located in the first year of the Degree being the first subject of the area of Didactics and Educational Organization studied by students. Therefore, the scientific field of didactics and the curriculum has been given an introductory character. The educational action that often has to be carried out by Social Educators includes the planning, execution and evaluation of actions and tasks linked to context analysis, the detection of needs, the elaboration of projects, the ordering of their execution, the follow-up and the verification of the impact. Many of these actions have to do with didactics and amply justify the fact that this subject has been incorporated into the training of the Social Educator. On line, the subject offers students the theoretical-practical basis for the design and development of teaching.
Objetivos (en términos de resultados del aprendizaje) Learning objectives	1. Learning outcomes for the general competences that are worked on in the subject. The student is able to demonstrate his/her ability to work collaboratively, interpersonal communication, autonomy, search for knowledge and critical capacity. The student is able to make decisions in problematic situations where he must show willingness to learn and unlearn continuously and apply self-evaluation strategies as a desire for personal and professional improvement. 2. Learning outcomes for the specific competences that are worked on in the subject. The student is able to identify the theories and models necessary

	for the development of teaching-learning processes, considering the way in which they modify the role of the educator today. As well as the basic principles and concepts related to the field of didactics, the curriculum and training programs, both in the development of projects (curriculum design), as well as their monitoring and evaluation, in order to improve it. And, in short, it will be able to demonstrate an understanding, analysis and assessment of the teaching processes developed in the areas of social education. The student is capable of designing methodological systems that facilitate educational action by trying to identify the most suitable methodologies for the proposed actions. The student will need to justify the theoretical and methodological bases on which to support and justify his action, as well as the pedagogical strategies that will help him to know and approach the groups and people with whom he will work in his training project. 3. Learning outcomes for the other competences of the subject. The student is capable of elaborating, with the acquired knowledge of the pedagogical and curricular elements, a curricular design as a strategy of action in the field of social education, taking into account the different situations in which the chosen target group can be found (socio-cultural and institutional context, needs, resources, etc.) and the different psychosocial characteristics of the target group. They must be able to define the most appropriate pedagogical elements and curricular elements (characteristics and needs of the target group, objectives, contents, methodology, resources and didactic strategies, evaluation, modality, time, place, etc.), differentiating the suitability for each specific group to which the curricular design is directed.

This year we want to continue an experience of educational innovation in which we are going to work on the methodology of Service-Learning (ApS). This didactic methodology implies a face-to-face teaching of the BE, accompanied by the performance of community service activities, in the form of external activity, outside the university, which will be computed as part of the EPD hours. Of these, some

	will take place in the classroom, and as we say, much of it will be community service. The experience is intended to be shared among several subjects and for this purpose, some common face-to-face sessions will be jointly planned and articulated to give meaning to the experience. Each subject will develop its program of contents in the stipulated EBs. This Theoretical content, according to the objective of this methodology, will be supported in every way. for the external activity that will be being carried out, as they will be articulated in the spaces for discussion-reflection in which theory joins practice. Documents aimed at encouraging this reflection will be provided, as well as the analysis Criticism of the students on the topics dealt with. Distribution of the time dedicated to the subject (1 credit: 25 hours of work of the teacher). student in the following manner) Basic Teachings: 20%. Practical and Developmental Teachings: 15%. Academic activities of directed practices: 5%. Tutorials: 3% Tutoring: 3% Written tests: 2%. Self-tasks of the student: 55%.

7. Criterios generales de evaluación / Assessment

Primera convocatoria ordinaria (convocatoria de curso) First session	El 80% de la calificación procede de la evaluación continua. El 20% de la calificación procede del examen o prueba final. INDIVIDUAL TASK (CONTINUOUS EVALUATION) A. Complete a multiple-choice exercise of previous questions based on the 3 main points on which the subject is structured; Objectives, Methodology and Evaluation. (1.5 points). B. Readings related to the content of the subject: (1.5 points). The task of the readings consists of 3 moments: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. First part. INDIVIDUAL READING OF THE INDICATED MATERIAL.</li> <li>2. Second part. To extract two main ideas from the reading and to relate it with the practice of the center. Deliver to class on the agreed day.</li> <li>3. Third part: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- 1st part of EB session; Debate on reading in large group</li> <li>- 2ª part of session EB; Realization of personal reflection and delivery.</li> </ul> </li> </ol> C. Final report of the service (5 points). In an individual way, a global synthesis of the project and the learning of the subject will

be carried out. This work will be delivered to the professor at the end of the semester to complete the evaluation, through the online campus (WEBCT). For the realization of this report, specific orientations will be given in the EB class. Further information on this report can be found in the document "Didactics Specific Tasks Guide", in the virtual classroom topics section.

Exceptionally, the Final Report may be developed in a group, as long as the theme to be worked on is based on transversal themes and the components of the group carry out their ApS in the same group for which the intervention is designed.

GROUP TASK (FINAL TEST)

1. Elaboration of a video about some aspect of the ApS experience (to celebrate, recognize and disseminate (1.5 points). Students prepare advance presentations of their video projects about the ApS experience in advance. They will discuss it with the teachers and their classmates to exchange ideas. Students will participate in a video exhibition during the 5th Festival of Social Education mini videos. In the videos, personal and group reflections are integrated around the lived experience: what has been learned, what has been discovered in the Polígono Sur, social education, etc.

This task also has several moments. We will carry out a specific EPD in a large group to begin the work of this task. Afterwards, there will be a follow-up in small groups and the handing over of several parts of the task.

2. Presentations of the video in the Festival of mini videos (0,5 points). GROUP TASK. Effortlessly completed works should be shown to the satisfaction of their authors and to serve as inspiration to others. Students should prepare a brief presentation of their video (before or after viewing the video). It is not a question of telling what is already shown, but of what is behind it, what has been pretended, what is not seen, the process, etc. They must also be willing to hold a debate and hold questions from Festival participants and to ask their colleagues about their work.

Attendance is very important in this learning experience. The dates of delivery of tasks are of obligatory fulfillment. Failure to turn in assignments on time will result in failure to earn the points assigned to you.

Segunda convocatoria ordinaria
(convocatoria de recuperación)
Second session (to re-sit the exam)

OPTION B: The student who has no involvement in the development of the experience. For those students who, for work and/or other reasons, could not follow the normal development of the subject, there is a final evaluation modality. This evaluation considers the realization of a written test type examination (on the totality of the thematic of the theoretical and practical credits on diverse aspects of the program of the subject) and the realization of a theoretical-practical report on an agreed task.

Convocatoria extraordinaria de
Extraordinary November session

Se activa a petición del alumno siempre y cuando éste esté matriculado en todas las asignaturas que le resten para finalizar sus estudios de grado, tal y como establece la Normativa de Progreso y Permanencia de la Universidad.

Se evaluará del total de los conocimientos y competencias que figuren en la guía docente del curso anterior, mediante el sistema de prueba única.
