Getting to Sevilla

- By plane

If you decide to fly to Seville, you'll land at the Seville Airport, located 9 kilometres east of Seville. You can get to the centre of Seville from the airport in just 15 minutes if you use your own car, rent a car or take a taxi, Uber or Cabify. And it will take just 35 minutes if you choose the bus.

- By train (Santa Justa Station)

You can reach Santa Justa Station on high-speed lines from Cordoba, Madrid, Zaragoza and Barcelona on the southwest-northeast line of the AVE, and from Malaga on the AVANT trains. The terminal's location is just a 15-minute walk from the city centre. Tickets are available online <https://www.renfe.com>

- By car

Seville is perfectly connected by road. A highway network connects it with all areas: the A-49 links it with Huelva and Portugal. The A-92 links to Malaga and Granada. The A-4 arrives from Cordoba and Madrid. The A-66 connects to Extremadura and the north of Spain.

The SE-30, the Ronda Super Norte and the SE-40 are the bypass roads facilitating movement around the city and its metropolitan area.
